

Tips + Reviews

A great vietnamese restaurant stuffed full of film posters and graphic artwork. Go for the tasty lobster pho and bang bang spicy wings rather than its "film noir" interiors.

— Dojo Tip

Bang Bang Canteen serves a range of Vietnamese street food with signature dishes including lobster pho; and steam boa and fish sauce wings. The restaurants design has a Vietnamese Colonial French style, with an industrial feel. A film noir theme is apparent throughout the interior which is reflected on its menus, napkins and social media.
